Pray for the city:

On the Sunday after 9/11 I was at a service in Westminster Central Hall in London and remember being moved to tears as we cried out for our city and nation. Since then we have seen terrorist attacks in cities around the world including Manchester and London. Jeremiah was calling the Jewish people to pray for the peace and prosperity of the city where they were to be exiled. As Christians with a heavenly home that awaits, we are exiles - strangers and aliens wherever we live. Whether we face acts of terrorism, the increase of gun and knife crime on our streets, or an uncertain political climate, we are called to pray for our city.

PRAYER Father we pray for the peace and prosperity of our cities, whatever situations of enmity and aggression they face. Stir our hearts to be agents for peace and hope in the knowledge that as our cities, towns and villages prosper, so we your Church will prosper too. Amen

Celtic Prayer of protection

May the three enfold us Father, Son and Holy Spirit Hold us safe and hold us strong May the three encompass us
Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Encircle our life each day and night May the three protect us
Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Guard our doors and keep each gate May the three watch over us
Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Still our hearts and calm all fear

Special prayer for this week Trinity 19 Faithful Lord, whose steadfast love never ceases and whose mercies never come to an end:
grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love, new every morning, in Jesus Christ our Lord.
